

The Formation of Global Norms in a Changing World Order

16-27 July 2018

Course schedule

WEEK ONE:

- Monday: Need for (and sources of) international legal norms
- Tuesday: International agreements and the potentially unequal position of parties in concluding them
- Wednesday: Customary law and the power of states to influence its development
- Thursday: Formation of international regimes and the effect of regimes
- Friday: The power/influence of small states in the current legal system

WEEK TWO:

- Monday: Norms in International Relations
- Tuesday: Changing world order – institutions
- Wednesday: Changing world order – economics
- Thursday: Small states and global norms
- Friday: Western norms in a post-Western world

The lecture timings are the following:

10:00 - 11:30: First part of the lecture

11:30 - 11:45: 15 minute break

11:45 - 13:15: Second part of the lecture

Upon full participation and completion of course work students will be awarded 6 ECTS points and a certificate of completion.